Example

Bhuvana : Good morning Roshini.

Roshini : Good morning. How are you?

Bhuvana : What's up?

Roshini : Nothing much. You?

Formal Greetings: Arriving

- Good morning / afternoon / evening!
- Hello (name), how are you?
- Good day Sir / Madam (very formal)
- Good morning Mr. Raju.
- Hello Ms. Sherlyn. How are you today?

Informal Greetings: Arriving

| | |
|---|---|
| Hi / Hello! | How are you? / How are you doing? |
| How are you? | Very well, thank you. And you? (formal) |
| How are you doing? | Fine / Great (informal) |
| What's up? (very informal) | Not much.I'm just (watching TV, cooking dinner, etc.) |

Informal Greetings After a Long Time

If you haven't seen a friend or family member for a long time, use one of these informal greetings to mark the occasion.

- It's great to see you!
- How have you been?
- Long time, no see.
- How are you doing these days?

Formal Greetings: Departing

Use these greetings when you say goodbye at the end of the day. These greetings are appropriate for work and other formal and informal situations.

8th_english_1 to 3.indd 12 16-12-2022 14:21:37