Exercise:

Answer the following.

1. Write a sentence using 'as fast as the wind'.
2. Write a simile using the word 'like'.
3. Think of a simile using the word 'as'.
4. What does 'as smart as a fox' mean?

2. Metaphor:

A Metaphor is an implied meaning. Unlike Similes which compare two things with a use of words 'like' or 'as', Metaphors directly state the comparison two things that are in no way similar.

Examples:

- My father was boiling mad. (implies that he was very angry)
- She is the apple of my eye. (implies that she is too dear to me)
- Your brain is a computer. (implies that your brain is smart and quick)
- Her voice is music to his ears. (implies that her voice makes him feel happy)
- The given task was a breeze. (implies that the task was not difficult)

Exercise:

1. Which of the given option is a Metaphor?

   a) Life is like a chocolate box. b) Raj is like his twin brother.

   c) His words are pearls of wisdom. d) The bus is slow as a snail.

2. What does "The world is a stage" mean?
3. Identify the Metaphor in the sentence.

   Her hair is always a rat's nest in the morning.

4. Write a sentence with a Metaphor.

William Shakespeare invented over 1700 words that have become very common words, by changing nouns into verbs, changing verbs into adjectives, connecting words never before used together, adding prefixes and suffixes and devising words wholly original.
