Human Rights Organisations

Many organisations around the world have taken their efforts to protect human rights and for ending human rights abuses. These Non-governmental organisations monitor the actions of governments and pressure them to act according to human right principles. Some of these organaisations are Amnesty International, Children's Defense Fund, Human Rights Watch.

Indian Constitution Article

24 - prohibits child labour.

39(f) - provides for children to develop in healthy manner.

45 – provides that the state shall endeavor to provide early childhood care and education for all children until they complete the age of six years.

Child Rights

According to Article 1 of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child 1989, 'a child means every human being below the age of eighteen years'. The Convention on the Rights of the Child was proclaimed by UN on 20th November 1989.

The child is considered as an important national asset. The future of a nation depends on how its children mature and develop. So protection of children from all kinds of exploitation and abuses has become the main objective of our society. There are laws in India protecting the rights of the children.

UNO has declared

1978 as International year of women.

1979 as the International year of children.

a. Right to Education Act
